

Level 7			Demonstrate a systematic understanding and depth of knowledge of areas of study or of professional practice in Chaplaincy Studies that is informed by research and original thinking at current boundaries of the subject.	Understand, assimilate and evaluate critically methodologies and findings of advanced scholarship and research in the chosen area(s) of Chaplaincy Studies.	Demonstrate an understanding of a range of methods of analysis and inquiry in Chaplaincy Studies, and an in depth engagement with methods applicable to their chosen field of research or enquiry.	Give a critical and comprehensive account of a range of methods for relating their chosen field of study to aspects of faith, church and society.	Apply their knowledge to undertake independent investigation of areas of study or of professional practice, reaching valid conclusions, some of which may be original, and report these findings effectively within the conventions of the relevant academic or professional community.	Evaluate and apply methodologies, develop critiques of them and, where appropriate, propose new hypotheses.	Reflect theologically in a sophisticated and rigorous manner, exercising sound judgement when engaging systematically and creatively with complex, unpredictable and ambiguous realities in the church and the world today.	Contribute to the debate at the forefront of their chosen area(s) of study or practice.	Carry out systematic and creative research into complex issues and communicate their findings with clarity, sensitivity, fairness and imagination to specialist and non-specialist audiences.	Demonstrate initiative, self-direction and independence in tackling and solving problems, and in planning and implementing tasks.	Exercise their independent learning skills to pursue further professional development or academic study.
